GENERAL DECLINE

Early Bear Attack Followed by Liquidation, and Market Closes Weak.

WILSON'S HEALTH HAS EFFECT

Any Change in Administration Program Would Be Considered Calamity.

New York, December 12.—Stocks closed weak to-day. An early bear attack was followed by liquidation, stop-loss orders were uncovered and a general decline carried leadcak to-day. Feurs regarding President Wilson's health ad a decidedly disquieting effoot in finanall circles. Whatever disagreements there say be in the mind of bankers regarding the residents policy, few doubt his sincerity, and any abandament of plans or change of immistrative program that might be occaoned by the serious lilness of the chief eccurive, would be considered a public clamity by Wall Street.

Traders forced down the price of Steel, scus of interest was New Haven. Investors ho were slow to believe the directors ould entirely stop dividends, are now bringtig their shares to market, but are waiting better market to actually sell. Dribbling quidation will no doubt continue for some nie and carry the price to new low levels.

From 69 the stock dropped to 635. The ind of the investor works slowly. As an inlance, a man with 1,000 shares of New aven, which he wished to sell, placed the rider at the current price of 69. As the quotions dropped he reduced his limit, finally
